CITY NEWS.

—Chancery sales to-day.

—The schools will soon close.

—Candidates are plentiful at the track.

—There was nothing to do in the Police Court yesterday and it was not opened.

—Work on the tobogganning switch-back roller coaster will probably begin next week.

—The guads were worse yesterday than they have been since the plague began. Stock was badly punished.

—The Sunday Times is the only paper publishing plate water, which has yet complied with the will of the union against it.

—In the Criminal Court yesterday John Sing was acquitted of the charge of swindling another celestial out of the sum of $60.

—Persons encircling town yesterday from the country northeast of the city report considerable damage by the heavy storm of the night before.

—Attorney-General Turner and Sergt. Rogers, the keeper of Court Square, had a row in the park yesterday, which resulted in the arrest of the Attorney-General for threatening to strike the sergeant with a cane.

—The town is now wild. The streets are almost deserted from 2 to 6 o'clock. Five thousand men out of the city makes a big hole in the male population.

—Leopold Gottschall, a citizen of Germany, yesterday renounced his allegiance to Emperor William, and was made a citizen of the United States.

—In the Circuit Court yesterday Clapp & Beard, attorneys for the Boston and Sandwich Gas Company, filed a suit against J. H. Schwarzenburg and others for $100,000.

—A. J. Allison, colored, who came from Mississippi to attend the races, was robbed and placed in jail as a witness, he being a non-resident of the State. Subsequently Judge Douglass discharged Allison on condition that he would appear and prosecute the thief on next Monday.

—The six leading German organizations will be represented in the grand procession and escort the May Queen to Estival at 6 o'clock p.m. Monday evening.

—An especial feature of this year's celebration will be two bands of music on the ground, one to furnish music for the dances, the other concert music.

—The Holly Springs South has the following: "The Avalanche says it is believed by many that the Memphis, Birmingham and Atlantic road will not be built beyond Holly Springs if the Kansas City road persists in building a parallel line. But the Memphis, Birmingham and Atlantic will get there before the Kansas City can begin."

—Wm. Jones, assault to rape; Allen Porter, rape; Chas. Foster, malicious cutting; A'Ex. White, assault and battery; Simon Houston, assault and battery; V. A. Newton, carrying a razor; Will Jones, assault and battery; E. L. Lovelace, obtaining money under false pretenses, were arraigned at the bar of the Criminal Court and pleaded not guilty.

—The grand jury yesterday returned the following bills of indictment: G. W. Barbour, fraudulent breach of trust; C. W. Hoffman, assault and battery; Van Martin, carrying a pistol and assault and battery; Will Bowman, larceny; John Baldwin, housebreaking and larceny; Jim Armstrong, larceny; Jim Ryder, assault and battery; John Wilkerson, larceny.

—Treasure Green's benefit having been postponed last evening, on account of the storm, will be given at Leubrie's Theater Wednesday evening, May 12th. The same opera, Doctor of Alcantara, will be rendered upon this occasion. The reserved seat tickets which have been sold are good, and will reserve the same seats. Tickets on sale at box office at Mulford's jewelry store, Main street.

—The officers of the Paris C. Brown should be arrested and jailed should the terrible nightmare they call a whistle again be turned loose upon a long-suffering community from the boat's mooring at the wharf. About 3 o'clock yesterday morning the awful sound, continued with variations, woke up half the inhabitants of this city, who were excusable for imagining that the world was coming to an end.

—Fire broke out in an unoccupied house at Henning Station, on the Chesapeake road, forty miles from the city, yesterday morning, and swept away nearly the entire town. The loss was about $27,000; insurance, $2500. The following losses are reported: Wilson & Bowers, two houses and stock, $2500; R. F. Lipscomb & Co., house and stock, $3500; R. B. Lipscomb & Co., house and stock, $4000; Dr. J. J. Alston, house, $100; Dr. S. W. Sanford, house and stock, $1000; W. P. Posey, house, $800; C. L. Strickland, house, $500; Evans & Barfield, house, $500; Alex. Calson, house, $100; Martin & Bro., house, $200.
